RTX Telecom sells its remaining shareholding in American LitePoint Corporation

Summary: Together with existing and new shareholders of the American LitePoint Corporation, RTX Telecom has made and concluded an agreement on the sale of its remaining shareholding in the company. The sale affects the financial income before tax positively with about DKK 44 mill.

Together with existing and new shareholders of the American LitePoint Corporation, RTX Telecom has made and concluded an agreement on the sale of RTX Telecom's remaining shareholding in the company. The shares were purchased in 2002.

Since its establishment in May 2000, LitePoint Corporation has successfully strengthened its position in the global market by building up its development, sale and distribution of wireless technology solutions and advanced test equipment solutions within production of WiFi and Wimax products, in particular.

As a result of the sale of the shares, RTX Telecom's net financials will be positively affected by approx. DKK 44 mill. For the second half of the financial year 2006/07 RTX Telecom has realized a financial income of DKK 72 mill. in connection with the sale of its total shareholding in LitePoint Corporation.

The parties agree on not to disclose the selling price.

The sale of the shares is not expected to affect the overall expectations for net turnover and operating profit/loss (EBIT) for the financial year 2006/07, amounting to a net turnover of DKK 200 – 240 mill. and an operating profit/loss (EBIT) in the range from DKK -70 mill. to DKK -50 mill.

As a result of the sale of the shares, the Group expects a profit before tax in the range from DKK 0 mill. to DKK 20 mill. for the financial year 2006/07.
