RTX Telecom has closed an important development contract with a major international company

Summary: RTX Telecom has reached agreement with a major international company on the development of a dedicated wireless product. The development contract is worth more than 10 million Danish crowns.

RTX Telecom has agreed with a major international company to develop a dedicated wireless product.

The selected frequency range for the product is the 2.4 GHz ISM band, which can be used anywhere in the world. Bringing many years of wireless experience into this project, RTX Telecom was chosen as the supplier in a selection process that lasted almost a year.

For reasons of confidentiality, we cannot mention the name of the customer or the product type here.

The development agreement, which is worth more than 10 million Danish crowns, does not affect general expectations for the financial year 2003/04.

Best regards
RTX Telecom A/S
