

Tax Policy

It is the policy of RTX to be a responsible tax payer and contribute to the community RTX participate in.

The Group's external revenue and intragroup revenue cross national boundaries. Group internal trade are therefore conducted at arm's length and the income of the companies located in accordance with the group's transfer pricing policy.

The transfer price policy is based on externally generated benchmark studies. The Group's income statements and tax returns are reviewed by the AGM appointed auditors. In the event that RTX encounter a tax issue where the treatment of the tax issue is uncertain, it is the policy of the Group to obtain external advice from professional and independent advisers.
